

Invitation

Dear Tanka Friends,

I am delighted to advise you that Mariko Kitakubo will have her first recitation performance of Tanka poems in Switzerland at the University of Teacher Education, St.Gallen (Campus Rorschach) in the beautiful former Monastery Marienberg, Rorschach, on Lake Constance, on Tuesday, September 29, 2015, at 13.15 o'clock.

The passionate Tanka poet brings us the gift of this over 1300 years old Japanese short form poem in the natural rhythms of the Japanese language. She performs, accompanying herself on percussion instruments.

We will be glad to welcome you here. Marienberg is located in walking distance from the train station Rorschach. Admission is free.
